FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

University Park, IL
– Governors State University is celebrating 50 years of empowering innovation with a premier black-tie fundraiser, The Glitter & Gold Marvel Gala, on Friday, April 5 in the Center for Performing Arts.

Chicago Comedian Damon Williams will host the event, the first in a series of Governors State's 50th anniversary celebrations through June 2020.

GSU's esteemed alumni, faculty, community and business leaders, and students will be celebrated throughout the night, which will feature a networking reception, gourmet dinner, and live entertainment.

The superheroes gala theme reflects the unsung heroes—alumni, emeriti, corporate partners, faculty, and leaders—who lend their time, talent, and donations to GSU to build a better community for all.

For five decades, GSU has empowered innovation across the Chicagoland area, as an institution that strives to achieve educational excellence, empowerment, and hope for thousands of students and families.

Glitter & Gold Marvel Gala tickets are $100 per person. Purchase here.
